

1 the Governor comes in with a full plan sitting on a change
2 and Section 4.19, as it is drafted, would not permit the 3 legislature to make any amendments to the Governor's plan.
4 It takes it in toto or it rejects it in toto. It occurs to 5 me that that may raise as a matter of practice a number of 6 problems and I would suggest to the Committee it might give 7 some thought to the amendatory power in the legislature in 8 order to make this more workable.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Storm.

10 DELEGATE STORM: The Committee did consider
11 Delegate Hardwicke's proposal and I think we debated that 12 at least one day and we finally decided that they should 13 have the right to amend and we finally decided we would 14 leave it the way it is. Really, we don't need to go back
15 to the Committee. I am perfectly willing to, I think Dele-
16 gate Adkins really explained it but maybe a country boy can 17 give it a little bit clearer.

18 Let us go back and suppose that automobiles had 19 just been invented. The legislature would say, "Well, we 20 are going to register automobiles and license drivers and 21 pass laws regarding their operation." The Governor wouldn't
